Mr. Elison Says.

Some few days ago an ordinance passed both hopses of the council and was signed by the mayor which gave the collector and assessor of water rates the right to refund that portion of the quarterly water rent not used in case the consumer moves from premises before the quarter has expired.

In the money without he is instructed to do so by the council.

On the other hand, Collector Ellison is of the opinion that the new ordinance in connected to do so by the council.

Spalding's Thirtieth Anniversary. Spalding's Thirtleth Anniversary.

The thirtieth anniversary of Spalding's commercial college was informally celebrated yesterday by its faculty and students. Professor J. M. Greenwood, superintendent of the public achools, delivered a very interesting and practical address, which was replete with anecdotes and excellent advice. He spoke of the many pleasant hours he had spent at the college and of the many enduring friendships he had formed therein during the past twenty-one years of continuous residence in Kansas City. The thirtieth anniversary of the college will be formally celebrated later on by a reception, to which the public will be cordially invited.
